KITCHIN LAST NIGHT.

He Makes a Characteristic Speech. An Earnest Appeal.

Last night the court house was literally packed to hear Hon. W. H. Kitchin speak. In the audience were a number of ladies. The speaker was introduced by Z. V. Taylor in an appropriate and happy style.

When the speaker arose an outburst of applause fairly shook the building and Mr. Kitchin had to stand and wait for the enthusiasm to subside before he could be heard. He began by saying that he could but feel proud to be called upon to speak to such an audience as he saw before him. Said he had found a condition, since leaving his home and speaking in a dozen or more counties, which he had not believed existed—the white people are stirred as they have not been since 1876. The populists are coming back. They are coming back and joining the fight for white supremacy. Here the speaker referred to his temporary affiliation with the populists, and said he soon found that with the leaders of that party he was in a far worse crowd than Cleveland and his gold-bug allies; and that no power on earth, in the earth or under the earth could carry him into the republican party.

Here he was severe in his denunciation of the populist leaders for the inconsistency of their course. He mentioned the proudly-proclaimed utterances of the populists at Ocala, Omaha and St. Louis, all of which they had in a remarkably short time repudiated and voted for a party opposed to every principle enunciated by them.

While I am in favor of silver, I am here to talk to you about the issue in this campaign—an issue which should interest every white man, woman and child in the state, a real, living issue—white supremacy. If a white woman in my town were struck with an umbrella in the hands of a negro and told to "give it to her" by a negro policeman, there couldn't be republicans and populists enough found in forty days to bury the dead negroes,

Yet, it was not the negro he blamed. the negro was not responsible—it is the black-hearted fiend with a white skin who conspires at the midnight hour against his own race, his own flesh and blood. The day is coming when the negroes will stand by themselves and they will make the white men who are now with them crawl in the dust

This combine must be crushed or it will crush us. God Almighty decreed from the foundation of the world that the Anglo-Saxon race must rule the world, and no rep-pop combine can change the decree. Colored domination will be of short duration in North Carolina. Intelligent negroes in my county say they are sorry the republican party got control of the state. I am frank to say that I would prefer the rule of our best colored men to that of Butler, Ayer, Wilson and Thompson.

Once in a while a colored man votes the democratic ticket, and it shows that he is walking in the edge of civilization and that he has heard the gospel preached.

When Ayer, Thompson and Wilson proclaim that if the democrats again get in power they will take away the right to vote from the poor white man and the negro, they display all the elements of the hyena, ghoul and buzzard. When the democrats were in power every time they built an asylum for the unfortunate whites they built one for the unfortunate negro. Every time they built a little school house in the old field for white children they built one for negro children. When democrats taxed themselves to put teachers in white school houses they taxed themselves to put teachers in negro school houses. And so on they were accorded the blessings of this free government alike with their white neighbors.

And so on we might quote from his speech at great length. It was earnest and eloquent, punctuated at short intervals with tremendous outbursts of applause. He is a giant on the stump, and though he is "not as young as he used to be," he possesses the old-time fire, and the honesty of his heart beams from his face as he deals sledge-hammer blows at the common enemy.

Miss Lillian Tucker Company.

Mr. A. B. Simkins, advance agent of the Lillian Tucker Company, passed through the city last night. He will return to Greensboro in a short while to bill the town for this company, which will play here during the week commencing October 10th.

This company is now playing in Raleigh and has just closed a week's engagement in Wilmington and the papers of these cities speak well of them.

Miss Tucker played a week here last year and will be favorably remembered by those who saw her on the stage. This is one of the best popular price companies on the road.

THE OCCUPATION OF CUBA.

General Miles a Leading Advocate of Postponement.

WHO WILL BE THE COMMANDER?

General Lee Will Probably Not Be Selected—General Wade is Talked of For That Position.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Sept. 22—The president has been deeply impressed by various representations that have been made to him within the past few days with regard to the desirability of postponing the military occupation of Cuba.

It has been set forth that the regular troops, on account of the hard campaign at Santiago, are in no condition to perform even garrison duty in Cuba during the rainy season. General Miles is a leading advocate of postponement.

AS TO COMMANDER.

Washington, Sept. 22—Gen. Lee will probably not be selected to command the army of occupation in Cuba. The military advisers of the president are of the opinion that a major general of the regular army should be chosen for this important task. General Wade is being mentioned in this connection. He is at present in Havana with the commission of evacuation.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., Sept. 22, '98.

Conway Freeman, colored, was taken to jail yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Crouch.

Don't forget the silver medal contest by the young ladies tomorrow night at the graded school.

The birthday party given by the Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church last night in the opera house was a success in every way. "Bud" Wrenn managed to get in. It was quite a task to count the pennies he contributed. It was said from the number of brownies in his sack that he was older than Mr. Noah Jarrell.

L. P. Leimbird, of Mt. Gilead, spent last night with L. J. Ingram. He left for Winston this morning on business.

J. C. Gregson, of Siler City, was at Jarrell's today.

Rev. J. W. Goodman and Miss Daisy Rankin went to Greensboro today to attend the Ladies Missionary Union of the Orange Presbytery.

Rev. T. M. Johnson, of Greensboro, who has been assisting Rev. W. C. Hammer in a revival meeting at Lebanon, returned home today on the noon train.

Prof. C. L. Raper, who has been spending the summer at his old home, left this morning for Greensboro, where he will spend a few days before leaving for Columbia University, New York, where he will take a two years' course in American history.

The contract has been awarded to B. F. Jordan to erect the monument to the memory of the Confederate soldiers buried here.

J. P. Redding, P. V. Kirkman, C. F. Long, W. B. Bartlett and W. L. Stamey went on West's excursion to Asheville yesterday.

Don't fail to hear Hon. W. H. Kitchin tonight at the opera house.

A. E. Dodamead is spending the day in Greensboro.

ANOTHER RUNAWAY.

Which Might Have Been Avoided by a Careful Driver.

The negro hack drivers cannot be induced, it seems, to stand near their carriages while waiting at the depots for the passenger trains.

A law has been passed by the board of aldermen requiring them to stand within 5 feet of their carriages but it seems it cannot be enforced, for they have never stopped standing on the sidewalk and scuffling with each other, paying no attention to the ordinance, whatever.

Yesterday afternoon a carriage, owned and manipulated by one Atwater, colored, was left standing at the station while he joined some of his competitors in their loud talk on the sidewalk.

The horse became frightened at something, and there being no driver to hold him, ran up S. Elm street. When near the McAdoo the carriage struck a buggy and turned it over. The buggy was damaged but little, but Atwater was partly rewarded for his careless by having his carriage broken before his horse was stopped.

One of the Best.

Conway Freeman, a strong-looking bullet-headed negro, about 18 years old, was brought down from High Point yesterday and placed in jail in default of $50 bond. Conway declares he was one of High Point's best citizens and held a position as dray man in a grocery store there. There was not another negro in High Point quite so honest as he, though someone who was not well acquainted with him has charged him with that crime which he most abhors. The gentleman said Conway had stolen ten corn bags from him when he had no other evidence than that he had missed ten sacks and Conway had sold ten at the mill which were the same kind as those he had lost, and some of them had holes in them just where there were holes in Conway's. Conway thinks that poor evidence, but the magistrate who tried him sent him to court.

There are said to be no less than 480 ways of wearing the felt campaign hat of the American soldier. The prevailing style is the "straight Fedora," in which the crown of the hat is folded into a crease lengthwise—that is, from front to back. The Fifth Cavalry affect the Coppinger of Teton peak, in which the crown looks like a mountain summit, with four gulches and four ridges running down the sides. Nearly every infantry regiment has its own peculiar style.

REMAINS OF MISS DAVIS

A Guard of Former Confederate Soldiers Will Accompany The Remains to Richmond.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Sept. 22—A delegation from the Southern Society here will meet the body of Miss Winnie Davis when it reaches Motthaven this afternoon and act as an escort to Jersey City. A few members will go with the remains of the "Daughter of the Confederacy" to Richmond.

The body left Narragansett Pier, Rhode Island, this morning, a delegation of Grand Army men escorting the body from Rockingham hotel, where Miss Davis died, to the railroad station.

A committee of the Southern Society is provided with beautiful floral tributes from southern residents in New York. A guard of former confederate soldiers will remain in the car containing the casket until it reaches Richmond tomorrow morning.

SITUATION VERY GRAVE.

Clash Between Civil and Military Authorities Over Dreyfus Case.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, Sept. 22—The situation here is very grave and a clash between the military and civil authorities is quite pronounced. The seizure of Col. Picquart by General Zurlinden, military governor of Paris, when being tried by civil process, is, it is feared, the first step toward dictatorship. It emphaszies the determination of the army to prevent a revision of the Dreyfus case at all costs.

Haverhill, Mass., Sept. 22—Several persons were hurt today by stones which were hurled at electric cars by a mob of five thousand angry men. Several were seriously injured. The police were powerless. The police station was mobbed and in the attack many heads were cut by sticks and stones.

The riot was the outcome of the strike of the employees of the railroad which connects this and two other cities against the officers and rules of the new management. The line is entirely tied up.

KEELING'S BIG GRAY

Makes Things Lively Between the Depot and Express Office.

Yesterday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock, while J. L. Keeling's driver was unloading meat at the C. F. Y. V. depot, the wagon was turned over by a box of meat getting too far to one side. The horse was frightened and dashed off for parts remote. His first bound set the wagon at rights, but before he went far he struck one of the drays which was waiting for the passenger train. The dray was turned over like a chip and its driver was lifted into space. When he hit the ground he thought he was in a dying condition, but when he again collected his wits he was little the worse for the happening. Keeling's big gray continued on his homeward way with lightning-like rapidity. Again and again people got in his path, intending to stop him, but as he came near their courage failed and they quickly retired to the sidewalk. The horse stopped before any damage was done to the wagon.

Caps the Climax.

Good news from all of our colleges, but that from Trinity caps the climax. We rejoice the more because we had feared that the attacks upon that institution would result in a temporary loss. But not so. Trinity's enrollment is 75 per cent. above that of last year, the biggest gain we have heard of any institution of higher education making in this state. Good for the Methodists, glorious for Trinity. President Kilgo, we congratulate you. You have labored and suffered not without reward, the very reward you deserve. Those who sought to work ill, those who predicted ill, have received the rebuke they deserve. Two hundred students within Trinity's gates attest the confidence of the people of North Carolina in one of their best institutions in a time—for all of its glory—of great trial.—Biblical Recorder.

Baptist Sunday-School Convention.

The State Baptist Sunday-school convention of North Carolina met Wednesday, Sept. 21, at 8 p. m. at the Shiloh Baptist church. Address of welcome was delivered by the pastor, Rev. S. S. Henderson. Butler, of A. & M. College. Response by Prof. T. O. Fuller, of the Warrenton High School.

THURSDAY MORNING, 10 A. M.

After devotional services the constitution was read. Rev. S. U. Goode, Hall, Code and Dr. J. D. Chavis were welcomed to seats. At 11:00 a. m. Rev. Hall delivered an address on the use of the Bible in the Sunday-school.

The Boy Liberated.

George Johnson, the boy who was arrested yesterday morning as answering the description of the boy wanted in Roanoke, Va., was liberated yesterday afternoon. A gentleman who knew him said he was from Danville and did not live in Roanoke.

The boy stole a coat and several sewing machine fixtures in East Greensboro, but officer Scott, knowing that he was too young for punishment, and that the judge would turn him loose at the next term of court, let him go on condition that he would return to Danville at the earliest chance.

The boy is certainly an object of pity. His father and mother are dead and he has no relatives this side of Georgia, and, worst of all, he steals. He did not seem to mind his stay in jail and passed the time away playing marbles.

We are always grateful for friendly advice and counsel. No man has grown so smart that he does not need the advice and counsel of his friends. We have received instructions—not advice—as to how to run this paper from a postoffice where only one copy of the paper is sent—and that a deadhead—signed "Many Readers." Now, we greatly appreciate the way that free copy circulates, but instructions from any man who signs his name, "pays his money and takes his choice," will do as well.

The man who, through a weight of grief, yields to the weakness of mankind and seeks to drown his misery in the reeking cup, acts foolish, to say the least of it: but when that man afterwards has the manhood to acknowledge his error he is entitled to more respect than the man who, under the guise of a Christian and a sober man, goes about the state, proclaiming, Pharisee like, his own virtues and making lying and slanderous charges against men who are in their graves—charges which are proven false. To be more explicit—A. D. K. Wallace is a saint compared to the ghoul Cyrus Thompson.

We acknowledge with thanks the receipt of a copy of a pamphlet containing eight addresses of Hon. Robert M. Douglas, A. M., LL. D., of this city, one of the associate justices of the Supreme Court of North Carolina. One of these addresses is the reply to the toast "Greensboro" at the banquet of the Raleigh chamber of commerce, on April 29, 1890, from which we make the following extract:

"Responding to the toast of Greensboro, I presume you expect me to say something about Greensboro, and perhaps of her so-called boom. That is quickly said. She has no boom and wants none. All she asks or desires is the legitimate results of her magnificent natural advantages, and the full reward of her honest efforts. This she is rapidly attaining by the steady growth of her population and the healthy development of her varied industries. Greensboro has a conservative, as well as a progressive, people, clinging to whatever is good of the past, welcoming whatever is best in the ever changing present."

And the same that was true of Greensboro in 1890 is true in 1898 in fuller measure, shaken together, heaped up and running over.

In his speech here last night Capt. Kitchin proved what we have heretofore charged, that the populist proposition for fusion with the democrats was not in good faith and that it was never intended by the pops who framed it that it should be accepted. It was constructed in such a manner that the committee knew the democrats could not accept. It meant a complete surrender of one hundred and fifty thousand men to less than thirty thousand. Three of the committee who framed it told Capt. Kitchin that it was constructed, purposely, so that it would be impossible for the democrats to accept it. Yet so-called populist speakers are going about the state telling the people they made a fair proposition to the democrats to secure white supremacy. "It is a lie," says Capt. Kitchin.

OUR CAMPS AT HONOLULU.

Gen. Merriam Says He Doesn't Like Their Situation.

San Francisco, Sept. 21—Major-General Merriam arrived from Honolulu on the Australia late last night, but did not land until this morning, when he was absorbed in the mass of business that had accumulated since his departure some weeks ago.

"The Hawaiian Islands," he said, "are now a military district of the Department of California, of which I am commander, and I have placed Gen. King at the head of this district. An order to this effect was issued on September 4, and it provided that the troops should be consolidated into two camps, one to be called Camp McKinley, consisting of the First New York Regiment and a battalion of United States Volunteer Engineers, under command of Col. Thomas Barber, and another to be called Camp Otis, comprising all expeditionary troops temporarily in the district and commanded by the senior officer of these forces present."

Gen. Merriam is not favorably impressed with the camping grounds at Honolulu, which he regards as worse than those at San Francisco, for they have no drainage, and when the rains come will be very damp.

He has made a demand for barrack room in the basement of the government building and in Kalakaua's old bungalow in the palace grounds, but this demand is resisted by the government, which asserts that the rooms are used for the national guard and for civil offices.

Gen. Merriam was closeted today for several hours with Brig.-Gen. Miller, Col. Oscar Long, Depot Quartermaster, and Col. Baldwin, Purchasing Commissary, planning the expedition to Manila, which will comprise over 6,000 men, who are going to reinforce Major-Gen Otis. Gen. Merriam said he would despatch the troops as fast as possible without rushing matters.

"I expect six transports here in a few days," said Merriam. "The Senator left Manila on Aug. 24, the China on Aug. 30, the Indiana on Sept. 1, the Ohio and Valencia on Sept. 3, and the Pennsylvania on Sept. 4. All should arrive at San Francisco within a fortnight, but which will come first I cannot tell. A month from now it is probable the troops will all be at sea.

"I telegraphed to Washington tonight for information as to the status of the Honolulu troops. Brig.-Gen. Charles King is in command there with detachments of various regiments, recruits and others, and if these are included in the assignment to Manila, Gen. King will accompany them. Of course the New York regiment is on garrison duty at Honolulu, and will hardly be disturbed."

North Carolina Car Service Association.

Raleigh, N. C. Sept. 10th 1898.

To all Consignors and Consignees of Freight:

Serious loss and much inconvenience has been caused, both to the shippers and Railroad Companies, by the unnecessary detention of cars in loading and unloading freight. Shippers are often unable to procure cars, tracks are encumbered, and the speedy movement of freight is impossible under the practices that have prevailed. The Railroad Companies are obliged to correct this evil, and have issued the notice printed below.

The system thus established has been in successful operation in nearly all of the states in this country during many years, and with advantageous results to the public, as well as to the railroads. The amount charged is not sufficient to compensate the railroads for the use of their cars and tracks for warehouse purposes and is not collected for the purpose of revenue. but for the prevention of the detention of cars, which affects both the public and the transportation lines. The rules will be enforced without discrimination by the North Carolina Car Service Association, which will act for all interests alike.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that on and after Oct 1st, 1898, cars not unloaded within forty-eight (48) hours after arrival, and cars which are not loaded within forty-eight (48) hours after being placed in position, shall be subject to a charge of one dollar ($1.00) per day or fraction thereof, for the detention of cars and use of tracks Sundays and legal holidays excepted.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has the largest sale of any salve in the world. This fact and its merit has led dishonest people to attempt to counterfeit it. Look out for the man who attempts to deceive you when you call for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great pile cure.

How fearfully, painfully true are the words of J. Madison Leach. "The Ethiopian cannot change his skin nor the leopard his spots, but my God, fellow citizens, how soon a white man turns to a negro when he votes the republican ticket!"—Monroe Enquirer.

Sauce for the Gander.

When Cleveland was president he and the democratic party were held responsible for the low price of cotton. Why not then hold McKinley and the republican party responsible now for the present low price of cotton? What was sauce for the democratic goose should be sauce for the republican gander!—Chatham Record.

One Minute Cough Cure surprises people by its quick cures and children may take it in large quantities without the least danger. It has won for itself the best reputation of any preparation used today for colds, croup, tickling in the throat or obstinate coughs. Howard Gardner.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadeldhia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows; "I was in a most dreadful conditien tion. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Special Notice.

Proposals will be received by the city of Greensboro, N. C., up to November 15, 1898, for lighting the streets of said city with electricity for a period of three or more years from January 1, 1899, said proposals to be based on seventy or more arc lights of 1,200 candle power. City reserves right to reject any or all bids. Bids or inquiries should be addressed to B. H. Merrimon, chairman light committee, Greensboro, N. C.

In connection with the above the Industrial and Immigration Association of Greensboro urges investors to investigate Greensboro as a place for building an electric street railway and power plant. Numerous small manufacturing concerns want power of this kind. Incandescent lights are wanted. City has a population of over 10,000 and is growing rapidly. Unusual opportunity for those who mean business; no fakirs wanted. Information will be furnished by the I. & I Association.

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23rd, says; "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., of Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by C. E. Holton.

More than twenty million free samples of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve have been distributed by the manufacturers. What better proof of their confidence in it's merits do you want? It cures piles, burns, scalds, sores, in the shortest space of time. Howard Gardner.

Desire of the Heart.

When God shall crown at last the victor's head,
And lead him home with song and minstrelsy,
How were thine utmost hopes accomplished,
O, warrior that has wrought so valiantly?
"No more for me the harness and the sword,
I fight no more the battle of the Lord;
I ask alone
My mother's lips, sweet, sweet against mine own."

When God shall brim the vessel that was void,
And in his likeness wake thee satisfied
What anchorage of rapture unalloyed
Wilt thou desire, O, woman, hungry-eyed?
"The little babe that for one golden day
Slept on my arm, and in my bosom lay
The clinging touch
That was so tiny and that meant so much."

When God replenishes the empty heart,
And with his goodness fills the longing soul
What wilt thou ask, world weary that thou art,
What wilt thou choose, who mayest attain the whole?
"At twilight Paradise, a field of rest,
Green grass, green leaves, flowers against face and breast:
And in mine ear
Her voice, who passed so long before me here."

—Pall Mall Gazette.

THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

An Ideal Tourisy Trip to the North and East, via "Chesapeake Line."

The pleasure-seeking tourist can accomplish no more delightful rail and water journey to the North or East than via the Southern railway to Norfolk, thence the Chesapeake Line steamers to Baltimore. The Chesapeake Line is the fast mail route. The fleet consists of the most magnificent steamships afloat, The City of Atlanta, Charlotte, Danville and Baltimore, leaving Norfolk every week day at 5:45 for Baltimore, touching at Old Point Comfort. These ships are especially constructed for the Bay service, and their appointments are as perfect as the most fastidious taste can suggest.

The cousine is unexcelled, and every attention possible is shown to the traveler.

The connection with the Southern Railway, arriving at Norfolk at 7:50 a. m., permits a day's stay over at that point, giving an opportunity to visit Old Point Comfort (Fort Monroe) Virginia Beach and Newport News.

Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 25c. The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet.

At a recent medical congress in Edinburg much attention was given to so-called "headache powders." There was a general expression of opinion that these drugs require to be handled with the greatest possible care, and that a slight error of judgment with regard to dosage might be followed by disastrous results. Most of these substances depress the action of the heart.

Remarkable Rescue

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine would cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well: now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at C. E. Holton's drug store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

Col. K. M. Murchison, proprietor of the Orton House, Wilmington, spent last night at the Benbow. He was accompanied by his daughter.

Miss Nannie Lehman will arrive in the city tomorrow evening from Winston. She will visit her cousin, Miss Etta Rayle, on Asheboro street.

Hon. A. L. Brooks left the city on the noon train for Alamance county where he has an appointment to speak at some place in the county tonight.

W. K. Yates, a prominent attorney of Charlotte, and a son of Rev. Dr. Yates, presiding elder of the Durham district, passed through today enroute to Mt. Airy.

Capt. L. B. Alexander, of Asheville, adjutant of the First regiment, North Carolina volunteers, was in the city today enroute to Jacksonville to resume his duties after spending a vacation at home.

R. J. Reynolds, of Winston, came in this morning on the 7:37 train from Baltimore, where he has been in Johns Hopkins hospital for some time. His many friends will be pleased to know that he is much improved in health.

Mr. Ramon Alfonzo arrived last night on the vestibule from New York, having just returned from a nine months' trip in South America. He will spend about two weeks here and then return to New York with Mrs. Alfonzo.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodside who were recently married in Fayetteville and since that time have been stopping at the McAdoo, left last night for Charlotte, their future home. Mr. Woodside has been doing some electrical work at Proximity.

Col. W. A. Turk, general passenger agent of the Southern Railway, and Miss Turk, of Washington, passed through this morning enroute to Raleigh, where Col. Turk goes on business. They were accompanied by M. McCants, Col. Turk's private stenographer.

The Benbow House had one hundred guests yesterday. A big number, but nothing out of the usual order for this season of the year. Travelling men say they can't go anywhere without coming through Greensboro and this, with those who stopped at the McAdoo, gives some idea of the number who pass in a day.

Truth wears well. People have learned that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are reliable little pills for regulating the bowels, curing constipation and sick headache. They don't gripe. Howard Gardner.
